Date of transcription

JUSTIN PETERSEN, 5600 Roose, Apartment 24, who was accompanied by [redacted] [redacted] was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent and of the nature of the interview. PETERSEN was then provided an "Interrogation; Advice of Rights" form and was also orally advised of the contents of that form, after which he stated he understood his rights and so indicated by executing the above-described form. PETERSEN advised as follows:

At approximately 9:30 p.m. on the evening of September 22, 1975, he, [redacted] were in the area of the Union Bank and Trust Company, 48th and Normal, when [redacted] noticed the teller's drawer was ajar at the drive-in facility at the bank. [redacted] began pulling on the drawer and suddenly the drawer popped open. After the drawer opened [redacted] reached through the opening and attempted to remove money from the teller's drawer, however, his arms were so short he was unable to do so.

After [redacted] was unable to remove any items he, PETERSEN, attempted to reach into the money area but was unable to do so but he was able to reach some of the bank stamps and stamp pads located on the teller counter. [redacted] also attempted to reach the money drawer but he also was unable to do so.

After none of them could reach the money another kid, who had been observing their attempts, was sent across the street to get a coat hanger. This kid, whom he knows only as [redacted] returned with the coat hanger, however, they were unable to open the money drawer with the coat hanger. All of them then left the area of the bank and he went to his home.
